THE MOST CRITICAL PERIOD OF THE VOTING CONTEST OPENS TODAY

DAILY NEWS

VOLUME III. RICHMOND, CAL., FRIDAY, MAY 7, 1915. NUMBER 87

JAMES P. ARNOLD HAS PROVEN HIS UNFITNESS FOR OFFICE

Arnold's police record, which the other side has been so afraid would become public, is very bad.

This article is addressed to the parents of children, to the home people of Richmond. Evidence against Arnold has voluntarily been supplied the Daily News. It is printed as proof absolute that Arnold is not fit to be elected to the city council.

March 3, 1914, the "White House," a house of ill-fame, was raided. Arnold was then chief of police. Five girls and seven men were arrested.

The reason for the raid is almost unbelievable.

Jean Martin, proprietor of the house, had been paying Arnold $10 per week as protection money. Prior to the raid she was $20 in arrears. She was reminded of that fact. She paid only $10.

That was not enough. The raid followed.

Said Jean Martin: "I paid Arnold $10 per week for fifteen months. That $10 was in payment for assurance that my place would not be raided."

Sergeant Ruiz, who was second in rank to Chief of Police Arnold, was forced to resign following charges brought by a number of fallen women. He was charged with taking regular tribute.

It was not very long after Arnold resigned that Ruiz, following a short investigation by the Police Committee of the council, was forced to leave the force.

The evidence taken was not all against Sergeant Ruiz.

Sergeant Ruiz received weekly visits from one of the women that owned a house of ill-fame on Railroad avenue. These regular meetings were held behind closed doors. They were, of course, known by all the members of the force.

Jean Martin says further:

"Arnold visited me at one time and told me that if I would buy a certain piece of property on which to locate my house for $20,000, he would permit me had two other women to run red-light houses in Richmond, and no one else. He guaranteed me protection should I agree to the purchase."

A certain cigar store on Macdonald avenue at one time at least was used as a "fence" for the passage of redlight money to the head of the police force.

For a chief of police to take money from women who make their living by selling their bodies, is an act that needs no comment.

We have printed as little as possible of the many facts that we can back up. Needless to say, Jean Martin's statement is not the only evidence at hand.

For many months prior to his resignation, Arnold made a practice of visiting a certain Chinese gambling establishment in Oakland on Tenth street, opposite Tod and Red's Cafe, near Broadway. These visits were made as often as four and five times a week. He would leave Richmond in the early afternoon and not return until evening. His sergeant was instructed to always call him at Tod and Red's Cafe.

To profit by the traffic in women is, we think, inexpressibly despicable. We have told the story with distaste. Arnold used his official power to force fallen women to divide up their vice-stained cash by threatening them with imprisonment.

We have printed a part of Arnold's record when he was given a responsible position.

Arnold insults your intelligence when, despite his record, he asks for your vote.

CLERKS' HOST AT DANCE PARTY

A very enjoyable social evening was spent by the members of the Clerks' Union and their friends last night. A banquet was served, which was followed by a dance.

The sentiment of the members and the visitors was one of enthusiastic confidence that the three labor candidates, Ogborn, Carman and Snee, will be elected Monday by a landslide.

Miss Jewel O'Rourke, one of the candidates in the big Daily News contest, is confined to her bed with a slight attack of la grippe. She expects to be about again in a few days.

LOCAL MAN GIVEN PROBATION YESTERDAY

Thomas Rogers, 435 Ohio street, charged with failure to provide for his wife, was yesterday given probation by Superior Judge R. H. Latimer.

Rehfuss, sold his rooming house in this city and ran away with one of their 11 children, Elizabeth Rehfuss, now living in Oakland, yesterday filed a cross-complaint to her husband's suit for divorce, asking the court to compel Rehfuss to bring back the child and pay her $25 per month alimony.

INQUEST HELD FOR ACCIDENT VICTIM

At the inquest held to determine the cause of the death of Robert Connors, Concord merchant, who was killed in an automobile accident last week, the coroner-s jury, made up of Martinez businessmen, last night, decided that Connors met his death as a result of a broken neck, suffered in the fatal smashup.

In returning its verdict the jury made no mention of the $250 diamond ring that is missing, although much testimony regarding the ring, and when it was last seen, was brought forth.

The ring matter is still being investigated by the sheriff.s office.

Those who take a leading part in the ceremonies attendant to the inquest were Coroner C. L. Abbott, District Attorney Thomas D. Johnston and Assistant District Attorney A. S. Ormsby.

The inquest, which was held in the Superior courtroom, started at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and was not concluded until 7 o'clock last night. Several witnesses were examined. Conflicting statements were made concerning the time when the diamond ring was last seen on the finger of the dead man.

G.A.R. MEMBERS VISIT SCHOOL

Members of the G. A. R. of Richmond, accompanied by members of Richmond Circle, 56, Ladies of the G. A. R., visited the high school yesterday, and while there were entertained by the students. It is a question who did the most entertaining. Several of the veterans spoke on patriotic themes, as did several of the students of the local secondary school.

Speeches were made by Levi Boswell, Professor B. X. Tucker and C. Washburne.

Of the students, Donald McGregor read an excellent patriotic paper, and Walter Hoffman gave a fine talk. Vera McLarney's musical selection was well received.

F. A. Wolfsen of Merced is here on a visit with his sister, Mrs. Dave Barnhart, a resident of 216 Twelfth street.

Mrs. Phil Choisser leaves today for her home in Riverdale after a pleasant visit of several weeks with her mother, Mrs. Pitchford, resident of 227 Nevin avenue.

Girl Candidate Grand Daughter Of Town Namsake

MISS RAMONA MARTINEZ.

A candidate who is making a very energetic campaign is Miss Ramona Martinez. She was born in Martinez, which town was named after her grandfather, an early Spanish settler. This popular and winsome young lady has lived all her life in Contra Costa county and her family are well known. Besides being a native daughter, she enjoys the distinction of being the daughter of California born parents.

Miss Martinez will be one of the 1915 graduates of the Lincoln school this month. She has a host of friends not only in Richmond, but all over the county, who are enthusiastically aiding her in her campaign to be a prize winner in the Daily News Voting Contest.

Free Whist and Dance Party Of Pythians Sat.

With the big night only a little more than 24 hours off, the committees in charge of the free whist party and dance of Contra Costa Temple of Pythian Sisters, to be given tomorrow night in Pythian Hall, are fast completing all arrangements. BAY POINT MAN WILL WED METROPOLIS BELLE BAY POINT, May 6.—Friends and neighbors of Alvin A. Lofgren, one of the head officials of the C. A. Smith Lumber Company, are congratulating him over the announcement that in July he will take as his bride Miss Louise A. Gilbert, one of the leaders of the San Francisco smart set.

Lofgren's engagement became known through a luncheon given by the bride's parents at the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco a few days ago. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gilbert and is a decided beauty, besides being a talented musician and vocalist.

Mrs. Gertrude Biggs, Miss Adele Biggs and Mrs. William Janke, well known local women, left yesterday for Santa Rosa, where they will be in attendance at the carnival, now in progress in the Sonoma county metropolis.

LOCAL MAN IN SANTA FE WRECK

A. T. Cramer, local Santa Fe engineer, who resides at 114 Martina avenue, was a passenger on Southbound Santa Fe flyer No. 2, which ran into a washout and was derailed on the main line at Cressy, twelve miles northwest of Hanford, early yesterday morning. Fortunately Cramer was not injured, although he received a severe shaking up.

Five persons were injured as a result of the derailment, none of them fatally.

The train was in charge of a local crew. H. A. Woodcock, a resident of 1116 Bissell avenue, was the conductor; L. E. Hessler of 534 of 276 Fourteenth street were the brakemen. William Wing of 132 Washington avenue was the engineer and J. Graff, also of this city, was the fireman.

Passengers in the steel cars, which overturned, escaped by doors and windows. The derailed and upset cars sank in the mud. The tracks were cleared by a wrecking crew last night.

Cramer left here early yesterday morning on the train for a vacation to be spent in the East. He has resumed his trip.

Santa Fe officials are making an investigation.

SIERRA CLUB WOULD BUY MUIR RANCH

Negotiations looking towards the sale of the famous John Muir ranch at Muir station to the Sierra Club of San Francisco, have been started and although the deal is being clothed with the utmost secrecy, it is said, the club has secured an option on the property.

The club is probably the greatest admirer of the late naturalist and it is said that it desires to obtain the beautiful ranch as a spot upon which to make its permanent home.

The heirs, it is said, are loath to part with it, though if they did so would prefer to have the club take it over, knowing that it would be kept in its present condition and would always remain as one of the landmarks to commemorate the greatest naturalist this government has ever known.

TITLE IS GIVEN FOR SANITARIUM

Within the next week the old Mintzner mansion, situated in the hills near San Pablo, will be ready for patients. The interior has been entirely remodeled.

Tanker Richmond Arrives In N. Y. From Liverpool

After an uneventful voyage across the Atlantic ocean from Liverpool, the tanker Richmond docked in New York yesterday, according to a telegram received here by C. Phiel, brother of Captain Phiel of the speedy tanker.

The tanker's movements are no longer a mystery. It is expected it will start from New York in a few days on the trip back to Richmond. When the tanker first started from Richmond two months ago, with a valuable cargo of gasoline and oils on board, there was considerable speculation among seafaring men and Standard Oil employes, who had not been taken into the secret regarding its ultimate destination. The rumor was general that the Richmond was to attempt to run the big naval blockade.

Wendell Bouquet, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bouquet, well known local residents, shipped on the Richmond. Several days ago the anxious parents received a long letter from their son, in which he states he is having a good time, in addition to getting an insight into mariners' methods navigation and ship conduct.

PLAN UNIFORM RANK FOR CROCKETT PYTHIANS

CROCKETT, May 6.—Selby Lodge No. 192, Knights of Pythias, which has enjoyed a remarkable growth in its membership the past few months, soon hopes to have a uniform rank. The influx of young members has supplied the stimulus for the organization and at present writing indications point strongly to the forming of the company within the next few weeks.

Many years ago Crockett had a Pythian uniform rank, but during the days of depression in the 90's the organization became broken up through the removal of the majority of its members to other sections of the state.

Police Judge Lindsey was a business visitor in Martinez yesterday. While there he renewed old acquaintanceships.

HOWARD FRENCH JOINS RANKS OF BENEDICTS

Howard E. French, oil treater at the Standard Oil refinery, member of the Elks lodge of Richmond, baseball fan, nimrod and "good fellow," is lost to the boys. News of the marriage of French to Miss Annette Iara Evans of this city, became public yesterday for the first time.

French and his bride took the fateful step in Modesto on Wednesday afternoon. Those few friends they had taken into their confidence did not divulge the happy secret until 24 hours afterward.

The newlyweds have been close friends for many months. It was well known to mutual friends that a romance existed between them. Recently it was whispered around they were engaged. This was generally believed. But no one but the principals in this story know the exact date of the nuptials.

Both the contracting parties have hundreds of friends in the city and county. The bride has a charming personality, whic, coupled with a grace of carriage and bearing, has always made her one of the most popular of Richmond's daughters.

French is a prince of a fellow. Always genial and smiling, his personal friends are beyond number.

The couple will take up their permanent residence in this city.

VACATION DAYS HERE FOR MANY S. O. MEN

Vacation days have arrived for many of the Standard Oil employes. Starting yesterday many of the employes of the local refinery were notified they were to have their two weeks off. Th vacation period at the big plant lasts until October. Between now and October practically every employe of the company in this city will have had his two weeks allotted him by the company, to do as he pleases with.

THE RING HAS SMASHED ITSELF: VICTORY FOR PEOPLE IS CERTAIN

Within the past week there has been a tremendous change in sentiment throughout the city.

The shouted insults of the mayor, who deliberately or ignorantly applied an epithet to the people who dared oppose the Wall combination, called the people a name that has meaning which is almost unprintable; the blunder of the declaration of the Record-Herald that the insult was "a very apt term"; the blunder of printing an alibi for Arnold's police record before anything was even whispered about it; Hartnett's misuse of his position as a member of the License Committee to swing the saloon vote—all those moves have helped to turn the tide and make certain a veritable LANDSLIDE FOR OGBORN, CARMAN AND SNEE!

From one end of the city to another the feeling for Ogborn, Carman and Snee is running high. Supporters of the three candidates are enthusiastic. Victory is assured.

While at first it appears that the vote would not be unusually heavy at the general election next Monday, every indication yesterday was that the people of Richmond ARE AROUSED to the CRISIS, and realize the absolute necessity of casting their vote.

Tests of sentiment on Macdonald avenue and at the Point indicates that it will all be Ogborn, Carman and Snee.

As one man put it: "There is nothing to it. The Ring has smashed itself."

"Highbinder" has become the slogan of the campaign.

The shielding of Hartnett when the City Hall question came before the council, his refusal to take a stand when he had been given full notice that it was his ONE OPPORTUNITY TO SHOW WHICH SIDE HE WAS ON, is conceded by everyone to be his political death knell.

On the other side are Carman, Ogborn and Snee. Their records are unimpeachable—absolutely.

They have had the courage to take a stand on the vital issues.

They are pledged to lower gas, electric and water rates, an election on the City Hall site, local labor on city work, a square deal for HOME INDUSTRY.

Harmest, Arnold and Geriach have openly declared that they refuse to take any stand on the City Hall site question, or any other issue.

VICTORY FOR OGBORN, CARMAN AND SNEE IS CERTAIN.

THE RING HAS SMASHED ITSELF.

GO TO THE POLLS MONDAY AND INCREASE THE TREMENDOUS MAJORITY FOR OGBORN, CARMAN AND SNEE.

THE SKELETON

The Independent, owned body and soul by the ring, supporting three men, each one of whom represents the "Highbinder" ring, the George S. Wall combination, the asphalt bunch, the bad street swindlers, is naturally abnormally afraid of an expose that will smash their candidates' chances of election.

This FEAR can only come from the KNOWLEDGE OF FACTS THAT MUST AT ALL HAZARD BE KEPT FROM THE PUBLIC.

Thus some hyper-sensitive public official gets a sudden premonition that some of the TRUTH is going to see print.

There is a quick, nervous consultation. The poor Independent that must do the bidding of the bunch at any and all times, is ordered to mawkishly declare that Arnold's police record is snow white, etc., etc.

Said one of the Independent men Wednesday night: "The Daily News doesn't dare to print the truth about Arnold!"

Which forces us to the conclusion that if we knew half of what the Independent is so afraid will come to light, James Arnold would never have had the NERVE to ask the people to again place him in public office.

AFRAID CUTTI WILL KILL HER

Parading up and down in front of Judge C. H. Hayden's court room in Martinez while his assailant, Mrs. Sarafino Angelo, was being arraigned within, Alvarico Cutti created so much of a stir that the court ordered him brought into the room and then proceeded to lecture him.

Cutti is insanely in love with Mrs. Angelo. The woman asserted in court that since she had shot him and been released that he has been annoying her. Even since he swore to the warrant, charging her with an assault to commit murder he has been about her house.

"I looked through the window of my home," stated the woman in court yesterday, "and there saw him standing. He beckoned and called to me to come out. I am afraid he will kill me."

Judge Hayden was impressed with the woman's story and was talking the matter over with her when the face of Cutti appeared in the front window. The woman immediately became nervous and Judge Hayden instructed Constable Charles H. Palmer to go get the man.

"What do you mean by such actions about my court?" asked the judge. "I do not intend to have anything like this occur. What right have you to be peering into windows and parading up and down in front of my court when a woman you have charged with trying to murder you appears for arraignment?"

EPWORTH LEAGUE MEETING TONIGHT

The Epworth League will meet tonight at the First M. E. church for its regular weekly session. Rev. Guy A. White will be the speaker of the evening.

The league is divided into two teams, both competing in a campaign for members, and reports will be made tonight by leaders of the two teams.

SELLS-FLOTA

One word there is which has its place in the sacred traditions of the circus, and that word exists with the Selle-Floto Circus and Buffalo Bill's Original Wild West, which is coming to this city for one performance oonly, a matinee, Sunday, May 9, just as it has existed with every circus since the olden days:

"Clowns!"

For, you see, a circus wouldn't be a circus without clowns, and in spite of all the other attractions, Buffalo Bill and his wild west, Rosa Rosalind, the "Maid of Mystery"; in spite of the riders, the Indians, the artillery and soldiers; in spite of the elephants and trained lions and the hundreds of acrobats and aerialists, much of the attention this year has been given to the producing of clown acts and the gathering of "talent."

Producing? Certainly. For clown acts must be produced just as any play is produced, and rehearsed perhaps more carefully. It's no easy job to be a clown. With mimicry and pantomime alone must the mork of fun be done. There is no chance for words in a tent which holds ten thousand persons. Every action, every movement must have meaning—and that meaning must be one to bring laughter, or the ax falls in the treasury wagon and another clown has gone out upon the highways to seek a new job.

So it is that the clown forms an important part of the circus. And so it is also that the Sells-Floto Circus and Buffalo Bill's Original Wild West add to the list of other things that can be seen for the 25 cents general admission, that line of so much meaning:

"Forty clowns—count 'em—forty!"

BESSIE BARRISCALE IN "THE DEVIL" AT THE RICHMOND FOR 2 DAYS

There is something in the very name of the "Devil" which opens today for a two days run at the Richmond Theater, which is striking in the extreme, and indicates in every way something of the sensational developments which may be expected in the play itself. The films are from the production of Franz Molnar's famous drama by the New York Motion Picture Company, adapted by Charles Swickward.

Isabella is the wife of wealthy Alfred Zanden and comes to the studio of Harry Lang, a former sweetheart, to have her portrait painted. Just as Isabella is in the act of draping a shawl about her bare shoulders a suave and fashionably attired gentleman mysteriously appears at her side. It is the Devil in human garb who introduces himself as Dr. Miller. Finally the artist and Isabella are discovered in the studio with the devil listening through the keyhole. With the exclamation, 'My work is finished," the devil disappears and at the last is seen in the flames of the infernal regions. The difficult part of Isabella is taken by Bessie Barriscale, the Alcazar favorite.

In addition to this extraordinary picture, a drama, "Her Supreme Sacrifice," featuring Alice Joyce and Guy Coombs and a side-splitting comedy will be shown.

"NOT WORRIED" SAYS WILLIS

Business of a routine nature will occupy the attention of the Water Commission at the regular meeting of that body, to be held in the council rooms tonight, according to a statement made last night by Joseph B. Willis, chairman of the board. In answer to a query as to whether the subpoenaes recently served on the Water Commissioners to appear in the Superior Court, would be discussed, Willis said he did not think they would.

"We are paying no attention to the subpoenaes," said Willis. "We are guilty of no wrongdoing, and therefore have no reason to fear anything as a result of any investigation that the Grand Jury may start. I don't know when I will go into the Superior Court. I received my subpoena Wednesday." It did not say on what day I was to appear in the Superior Court, simply advising me to be in court ten days after receiving it."

"No, I don't think there will be any discussion regarding the affair at our meeting tonight."

"ABE" and "MAWRUSS" in "POTASH AND PERLMUTTER"

BIG COMEDY AT THE M'DONOUGH

Plenty of fashions, plenty of love and a million laughs are contained in the big comedy success, "Potash and Perlmutter", which A. H. Woods will present at the Macdonough Theater for one week beginning Monday May 3rd, with Alexander Carr and Barney Bernard as "Mawruss" and "Abe". No theatrical offering in many years has made such a pronounced hit with amusement seekers as this delightful comedy based upon the characters and incidents of Montague Glass' famous stories. Their quaint humor and quainter personalities have made "Abe" Potash and "Mawruss" Perlmutter national characters- international characters in fact, for they have fully duplicated all over Europe the tremendous success made in America and Manager A. H. Woods, who presented them to the public has been besieged with offers for the right to play in every civilized country in the world. This season "Potash and Perlmutter" will be presented in French, German, Italian and Spanish, while in the original English it is being played literally around the world. The secret of this universal success is the combination of humor and pathos, that makes the story.

May 7-8—BESSIE BARRISCALE in "THE DEVIL."

AT "PANTAGES"

"The Big Three" of vaudeville is what they call a strong trio of variety stars which head the new bill which opens at the Pantages on Sunday. Herbert Lloyd, one of the most original comedians in vaudeville, Jimmy Britt, the dapper, ex-lightweight champion, and Willy Zimmerman, the impersonator of historical characters, are the three headliners on an exceptionally good show. Lloyd is an English funmaker with a comedy routine that is ridiculously comical. He is assisted by five dashing show girls who introduce specialties during the brief pauses that the star is not working. Lloyd does a bit of everything that is usually seen on the vaudeville stage. He burlesques magicians, jugglers, crayon artists, acrobats and finishes with a travesty on stage celebrities that keeps an audience in one continual gale of laughter. Britt is one of the few exring folloders who has made a clean reputation before the footlights. His stories are witty and he introduces several recitations of sporting life with remarkable realism. He is on tour of the world and will play the Australian circuit immediately after closing on his special engagement with the Pantages circuit. Willy Zimmerman is known as the peer of all impersonations. His act this time consists of duties of war rulers and kings of the country now in conflict in Europe. Tom and Stacia Moore have a beautiful act entitled "The Dream Girl." Welly and Ten Eyck is a gorgeous dancing number styled "The Gambol of the Gods." Amedio, a rollicking accordion player, and the Powells, comedy cyclists, are other good acts.

COMMITTEES NAMED FOR GRAND BASEBALL BALL ON MAY 22ND

Committees for the grand benefit baseball dance, to be given on the night of Saturday, May 22, at East Shore Park were named yesterday. Practically everything in the success of any social function depends on the committees in charge, the volume of work they do, and the efficiency they show.

The baseball association has appointed three committees, arrangements, floor and reception. Every member of every committee is a live one. When the committeemen get their heads together to formulate final plans for the benefit ball, some novel ideas that will prove attractive to all dance lovers and baseball fans and fannies in the city, will be evolved.

On the arrangements committee are: W. E. Luce, Charles Burns, Howard French, Reginald Greathouse and William (Brick) Devereaux. On the floor committee are Frank Gordon, Kenneth Ingram, Roy Hyatt, William ("Cutey") Cunningham, Clifford Cleek and William Scarry.

Those on the reception committee are Julio Toneri, Jack Conger, Harvey Christianson, R. F. Daniels, Roy Woodbhry and C. B. O'Hara.

TEN-POUND SON FOR MR. AND MRS. PERRY

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Perry are the happy parents of a ten and onehalf pound baby boy, born early yesterday morning. Mrs. Perry and the little newcomer are doing finely. "Bill" Perry is a street car conductor. He was busy yesterday receiving the congratulations of his many friends.

SAM OBRIGIN NOT TO BE PROSECUTED

Sam Obrigin, jointly accused with Mine Marco of maliciously walking on a newly laid sidewalk on Castro avenue, near Standard, by Contractor Page, will not be prosecuted on the charge, according to a statement made last night by Deputy District Attorney Wilbur S. Pierce. Marco was found not guilty at his second trial in Police Judge Lindsey's court on Wednesday. It is thought that the evidence that would be brought out if Obrigin had a trial would be much the same as the evidence and testimony in the Marco case.

RICHARD HENRICH IS HONORED AT PARTY

Richard Henrich, who recently sold his interest in the Richmond Bakery, Washington avenue and Park place, Wednesday night was given a party by members of the Richmond Maennerchor.

Those present: J. Hirt, H. Friedrik, J. Burg, H. Luer, A. Markstein, V. Schang, E. Heidorn, M. Schuttpaltz, A. Aichiner, C. Ostfeld, F. Christ, R. Henrich H. Stroele, J. Laarman, A. Einhart, A. Voss, R. Bold, J. Hansen C. A. Ernst, L. Kubiater, E. Pieper, A. Redderman and G. A. Mews.

POPULAR MUSICIAN LEAVES RICHMOND

Joe Cavalieri departed last night for San Francisco, where he will make his future home. Until recently Cavalieri was proprietor of the Alaska barber shop, located near the Alaska pool hall on Macdonald avenue. Cavalieri, during his residence in Richmond, was a member of the Richmond Concert Band. He was a solo clarinetist, and one of the best the city has ever had. His hundreds of friends, and especially the band boys, will miss him, and hope that he does not remain in San Francisco as long as he intends.

Misses Hazel and Idele Whitehead entertained the members of the Orelei Club last night at their home, 449 Eighth street. Whist was played.

Fire Chief Roy LeMoine yesterday had his tonsils removed at the Craven hospital, Dr. W. E. Cunningham performing the operation.

S. HAGGERTY PLEADS GUILT

Stephen Haggerty, arrested with May Evans for robbing the room of F. Lobeer, plead guilty before Judge atimer in Martinez yesterday.

LADIES' NIGHT IS BRILLIANT EVENT

Last night was "Ladies' Night" at the Elks' lodge, and hundreds of Elks and their lady friends thronged the club rooms. The finest of music was provided during the evening, and the guests, every one of them, enjoyed themselves. "Ladies' Nights" are frequent functions, given by the members of the lodge, and the occasion never fails to draw large crowds of Elks and their lady friends from every section of the county.

H. Douglass, driver of the fire truck in Firehouse No. 2, was painfully injured yesterday morning, while cranking the big machine. The crank flew back, striking him in the left leg, and painfully, although not seriously, bruising that member. Fortunately no bones were broken.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, and young son, visited early in the week with their cousins, Mrs. Elizabeth Kaiser of 533 Eighth street, and Mrs. W. F. Falla of 401 Washington avenue. Smith is a wealthy screw manufacturer of Rochester, N. Y. The local people had never seen their relatives from the East prior to Tuesday. The Smiths will return to their New York home after visiting several days at the Exposition, and a tour of Southern California.

WAGES OF MEN CUT 10 PER CENT

BAY POINT, May 6.—Following its retrenchment policy inaugurated some time ago, when grave fears were expressed that the C. A. Smith Lumber Company would become insolvent, the firm has issued orders cutting 10 per cent from the salaries of all of its employes.

The company has announced that it is absolutely imperative to take such a step, but despite this numerous employes here have given up their positions and are now going elsewhere in search of jobs.

The majority of the men have accepted the cut, believing that as soon as the company gets itself out of its present difficulties it will return to the old salary basis.

HERE'S A WHOLE ARMFUL OF LIVE LOCAL FIGHT GOSSIP FOR FANS

There is no lack of talent for the next boxing show to be given in Richmond on the night of Friday, May 21. Pugs of all sizes, colors and nationalities invaded the office of Matchmaker Richmond last night, and stated their willingness and anxiety to go on.

After much rag-chewing back and forth (not between the fighters, but between their friends), Butch and Brazil, feathers, have agreed to take each other on again. These boys put on the scrappiest fight of the night at the last boxing show.

It is no easy matter to find an opponent for Earl Ritchie, champion heavyweight amateur of the coast. There are plenty of boys willing to fight him, but few of them have the necessary class. The matchmaker is trying to get Ritchie and Gus Hoffman, a San Francisco heavy, on for the main event.

Richmond is also trying to find a good man for Joe Ryan of San Francisco. Ryan is a middleweight. He has fought in Crockett and Pinole on numerous occasions, and is declared to be fast for a big man.

A match between Al Mejia and Frank Thompson of San Pablo has been practically clinched. There is bad blood between the two little fellows, and if they step in there, some of this bad blood is apt to have an outlet. Thompson has won seven fights straight. Mejia has been victor in both fights he has had since staging his comeback.

Events are shaping up in such a way as not to make Frank Mejia and Plug Milne the best of friends. Both of these lads are claimants to the lightweight championship of Richmond. There are many, and Mejia is one of them, who claim that Milne is not a legitimate lightweight, and that he cannot make 133 ringside. Frank Mejia says he is willing to fight Milne if the latter will make 133 ringside. At that he will be giving Plug several pounds in weight. These two may be matched for a later card.

Jim Lafferty, who was beaten by Milne in the last fight, is still in town. Lafferty has gone into strict training. He wants to go on with Jack Albright, who beat Joe Purdy.

Each day Lafferty does several miles of roadwork. He claimed last night that in a trial bout with Frank Brazil he put the scrappy little feather down for the count.

Hereafter there will be no haggling over what kind of trophies and prizes the fighters are to receive after the fights are over. Contracts similar to those used by the Amateur Promoters' Association of San Francisco will be used. Each fighter will be compelled to put up a small forfeit, guaranteeing his appearance and each fighter will have to weigh in at the rate stipulated in the contract.

Kirby Floyd's club will hereafter be officially known as the Richmond Athletic Club. In the near future it will probably be incorporated under this name.

Poundmaster Smith yesterday challenged the winner of the Wylie-Kraemer mill. Although many take Smith's challenge in a humorous vein, Smith says he is serious. Officer Depew will get the first crack at the winner of this mill.

BOXER IS HANDED KNOCKOUT BY JUSTICE

CROCKETT, May 6.—Justice R. H. Standish handed Manuel Pedro, boxer and lightweight champion of Crockett, Pinole and Rodeo, a stiff jolt to the solar plexus Wednesday and it was a clean knockout.

The champion of the bay region pleaded guilty to vagrancy and was fined $30, which he paid. With tears streaming down his eyes he promised to go to work.

Pedro was arrested by Constable Fox when he started in to turn a dance being held at the Globe hall into a prize ring. It is said that he got very mussed up during his attempt and then landed in jail. He was otld he would be given a jail term if he ever came before the court again.

Pedro's last ring fight was with Plug Milne of Richmond. He won a decision over Milne at Crockett last May.

What do you think of Ogborn, ance and Carman's attitude on the City Hall?

MARTINEZ PUGS WOULD GET IN ACTION

MARTINEZ, May 6.—Some time ago the Martinez Athletic club was granted permission by the city trustees to stage a boxing bout. That was the last heard of the plans and as there are few aspiring pugs anxious to get between the ropes they are besieging the directors for a chance to show. It is very possible that the bouts will be arranged for the near future.

Somebody lied. Some one has falsified. In a recent edition of the Sacramento Bee our old friend Alfred Putnam quotes Assemblyman Jimmy Byrnes of San Francisco as saying that he had witnessed one game in the Sacramento Valley Elimination League every Sunday since the league started. We happen to know that Byrnes has been catching nearly every Sunday for the Concord team since that club started its activities. Was Byrnes quoted wrong, or did Jimmy just stretch the truth a bit. After writing all this, we are just as much convinced as you are that it is much ado about nothing.

"Cutey" Cunningham will look good as a floor manager, we claim. Bill is a versatile individual at that.

Sooner or later there is bound to be a battle between Frank Mejia and Plug Milne. Both these birds are claimants to the title of "lightweight champion of Richmond." Both have many friends. Mejia says Milne is not a legitimate lightweight.

Are you a "highbinder"? Speak quick.

Some stirring times are in store for the Richmond baseball fans this season. Petaluma, Sebastopol, San Rafael, Vallejo, Milpitas and Martinez all remain to be vanquished, to say nothing of the Ambrose Tailors, who will make their appearance here Sunday.

* * *

"Nothing like it," chirped Howard French and Roy Hyatt yesterday when they submitted to a joint interview on the advantages of married life.

* * *

Conger may not be the best hitter in the world, but he is sure some infielder, and like Roy Corhan of the Seals, he is worth his weight in gold to any infield of which he happens to be a member. Conger is full of that old fighting pepper, and he fights every inch of the way. In spite of the diminutive size of his batting average, the records show that he has scored as many runs as any man on the team, and more than the majority of the boys have been able to put across.

After a diamond vacation extending over a period of three weeks, "Butch" Woodbury has promised Manager Luce that he will be back at his old position in right field for the game with the Ambrose Tailors on Sunday.

WILL IT PLEASE STOP RAINING BY SUNDAY?

Did it ever occur to you how persistent this darn rain is? A week ago Sunday it prevented the scheduled game with the Ambrose Tailors on the local lot. Last Sunday it nearly spilled the porridge on the San Rafael-Richmond game. Now it looks as though it is hanging on purposely to prevent the Elks from getting that crack at their old enemies, the Ambroses. The local baseball management announced last night that it would have to rain hard, and very hard, to keep the scheduled game from going through on Sunday.

The weather may dampen the clothes of those who venture out, but it is not dampening the ardor and the good spirits of the local ball tossers and fans. The home guards are managing to put in a few practice licks, in preparation for the nine frame session. Of course they expect to beat the Tailors. Weather permitting, they will. But it will be an awful struggle, and one well worth seeing.

The physician with only one prescription for every case wouldn't command your confidence, would he? You know that one prescription cannot cover all cases. Neither one style of typewriter cover all needs.

The manufacturer of only one style of machine is a special pleader for that one machine. He has got to be. But we are not special pleaders—we are consulting experts, without bias or leaning towards any type or kind of construction. We are in a position to furnish you any style of machine your individual requirements demand.

Think of us in this light, and you will realize how well it will pay you to call us in, and consult with us about your typewriter needs.
